2. Property taxes – how they are calculated and billed

Your property taxes are the product of two factors: your assessment, and the municipal and education mill rates. The municipal mill rate is determined by dividing the total property tax revenues required to meet the City's yearly operating budget by the total property assessment in the City. The education mill rate is calculated in a similar manner. The City collects school taxes on behalf of the school Boards, but does not administer or control school taxes.

CITY OF YELLOWKNIFE

One 'mill' represents $1.00 of tax for every $1,000 of assessment. Here's how the mill rate formula is applied in calculating your property taxes.

$(\text{Assessment} / 1,000) \times \text{Mill Rate} = \text{Property Taxes}$

The City is allowed to establish an interim tax levy (bill) not exceeding 50% of the property tax payable for the previous year. The interim and final bills are a combination of both municipal and school taxes.

For the last ten years the interim bill has been mailed to ratepayers at the end of January with the final levy being mailed at the end of June. The final mill rate is calculated once the Board of Revision has completed the second revision of the assessment roll and the school boards have submitted their requisitions to the City.

The 2015 interim tax levy is calculated by taking 50% of the 2014 municipal tax levy and 50% of the 2014 education levy.

Important Reminder

Due date for payment of interim taxes is March 31, 2015 to avoid being penalized. Whether or not you file a complaint against your assessment, taxes are still due and payable by the due date.

ASSESSMENTS - What does it all mean?

The City of Yellowknife will raise 75% of all operating revenue through property taxation in 2015. As well, Yellowknife School Districts raise some of their operating revenues through property taxation. In order to have fairness in property taxation, accurate and timely assessments should be completed.

Appeal mechanisms are in place for taxpayers who disagree with their property assessment. The first step is a complaint to the “Board of Revision” (please refer to “The Complaint Process” for more information). The Board is made up of local citizens. If a taxpayer is dissatisfied with the Board’s decision, a decision can be further appealed to the Territorial Assessment Appeal Tribunal. The final level of appeal is to the Supreme Court of the Northwest Territories.

What is an Assessment?

An assessment is a value placed on property (land and buildings) for municipal taxation purposes. Assessed values provide a means of distributing taxes among property owners in Yellowknife. Municipalities, including the City of Yellowknife, levy taxes to provide services such as fire protection, street lighting, parks and recreation, snow removal, road maintenance and public transit.

How is My Property Assessed?

The assessed value of your property is determined using standards established by Territorial legislation to ensure that all properties are assessed in an equitable manner. In addition, assessments are valued as of a “base year”. Currently, the base year for Yellowknife is 2012.

Land Assessment Values reflect 100% of market values in Yellowknife for the 2012 base year. These values are determined by analyzing the average selling price of similar parcels of land in an area for the base year. Items such as lot size, location and zoning are taken into consideration.

Building Assessment Values reflect 100% of typical depreciated replacement costs for the 2012 base year. These values are determined by applying the guidelines of a building assessment manual based on northern costs. These guidelines are regulated by the Territorial Government.

Factors affecting building assessment values include size, type of structure, quality of materials and depreciation. Building assessment values include fixed structures such as residences and garages and do not include items such as home furnishings, fences, driveways and landscaping.

How Can I Check the Accuracy of My Assessment?

Review your assessment notice to ensure correct name, address, school support, etc.

Compare your assessment with other similar properties in your neighbourhood. For land comparisons, ensure similarity of location, lot size and zoning. For building comparisons, ensure similarity of age, quality, style and size.

Your assessment notice indicates property classification. Check to ensure the property classification is correct.

The property classifications are as follows:

- 1) Residential
- 2) Multi Residential
- 3) Commercial and Industrial
- 4) Mining and Quarrying
- 5) High Density Parking
- 6) Agricultural

When Should I File a Complaint?

You must file a complaint within 45 days of the mailing date noted on the assessment notice.

Factors that warrant filing a complaint include:

- Factual errors such as structure description, quality or property classification, size, depreciation, land zoning, etc.
- Differences between your assessment and similar properties in your neighbourhood.
- Errors in the School Support Declaration

The Complaint Process

First, telephone our Customer Service representative at 920-5600. If you wish to file a complaint, it must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Revision at P.O. Box 580, Yellowknife, NT X1A 2N4.

It is important to provide the following information:

- Indicate your property address and assessment roll number.
- Identify whether the complaint is against the land assessment only, building assessment only, or land and building values.
- State the specific reasons for your complaint, such as an error on lot size or building classification, or an assessment value that is different from neighbours with similar lots and buildings. Include the addresses of any properties to which you are referring to in your complaint.
- Indicate the address to which you want correspondence sent if it is different from the mailing address on your assessment notice. Include both your home and business telephone numbers. Be sure to sign and date your complaint.

Approximately two weeks after filing your complaint you will receive an acknowledgment from the Board of Revision. Later, a "Notice of Hearing" will be mailed to you at least 21 days prior to the hearing of your complaint, providing the date, time and location of your hearing. At the Board, you will have the opportunity to present your case to Board Members, who are not City employees or assessors. Please note that a hearing date will not be set for changes to the school support declaration.

Important Reminders

- Complaints can be filed against assessment only, not against taxes.
- If you feel your assessment is not fair in comparison to other similar properties, please discuss your assessment with us.
- If you decide to file a complaint with the Board of Revision, you must do so prior to the final date for filing shown on your assessment notice.

School Tax Support – You have a choice!

Where your school tax dollar goes

The Yellowknife Education District No. 1 and the Yellowknife Catholic Schools are the only two school jurisdictions within the Northwest Territories with the ability to raise revenue through property taxes. This revenue translates into a financial flexibility allowing value-added programming in a number of key areas. It can be seen in quality facilities, French Immersion programming, lower pupil/teacher ratios and appropriate technologies. The school districts are not limited to standard models, either in facility design or school operation. Yellowknife schools are some of the best in the Northwest Territories and in the country.

How school taxes are allocated

All ratepayers in the City of Yellowknife have the option of allocating where their school taxes go. A ratepayer can declare their support from 1% to 100% to either school district. All property owners receive a Notice of Assessment in January indicating the prior year's school tax support and asking for any changes for the coming taxation period. If the homeowner wishes to change this support, they must do so in writing to the Secretary of the Board of Revision within 45 days of the mailing date of the assessment notice. Your school tax allocated monies will apply to the 2015/2016 school year.

If a ratepayer does not declare a specific school tax support then taxes are allocated on an enrolment ratio. Currently the enrolment split is 57.19% to the Yellowknife Education District No. 1 and 42.81% to the Yellowknife Catholic Schools. When a property is sold, the declaration automatically reverts back to the enrolment split and it is up to the new property owner to declare their new declaration if it is different from the enrolment split.

As mentioned above, a ratepayer can declare their support 100% to either Board or any portion thereof. For example, a ratepayer with 4 children, 2 of whom attend a public school and 2 of whom attend a Catholic school, may wish to declare his or her support 50% to the Yellowknife Education District No.1 and 50% to the Yellowknife Catholic Schools.

In Summary:

- A ratepayer can declare their support for either school board either partially or in full.
- A ratepayer can only change their school tax support within the 45 day period after the mailing date noted on the assessment notice.
- Upon the sale of a property, school tax support automatically reverts to the enrolment ratio.
